Cherry, Esq., of the M.C.S., late Zillah Judge at Kumbakonam, who, on the 10th of February 1827, and in the 39th year of his age, after a short illness, resigned a life eminently distinguished for rectitude of principle and zeal to his employers. As a public character, and as a private one, for every amiable qualification that could adorn it, his heart was open to every charitable feeling and generous sympathy. The peculiarly melancholy loss of this inestimable life to his family is, and ever must continue, a source of the deepest affliction. For, in him do they mourn the affectionate husband, excellent parent and faithful friend. In every respect, O! how truly worthy was he of imitation. This tribute of affection and respect to his dear memory is offered by his devoted and disconsolate wife, C. S. Cherry. "He had fought a good fight; he had finished his course; he had kept the faith." "To sect or party, his large soul disdained to be confined; the good he loved of every name, and prayed for all mankind."

1780	January 13th ...	Maitland. Here lies the body of Miss Sophia Maitland, who died on the 13th of January 1780, in the 17th year of her age. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."
1789	May 23rd ...	Burrowes. Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Sarah Burrowes, the beloved wife of Thomas Burrowes, Major of Cavalry; she died the 23rd May 1789. Her life was distinguished by every virtue which flows from a native purity of mind and a just sense of religion. Nor was she less admired for her taste and proficiency in the fine arts, than respected and beloved for all those amiable qualities, which truly enrich the female character and constitute the chief ornament of the wife, the parent and the friend.
1791	March 15th ...	Strange. Near this place (whither her remains were brought from Madras) lies the body of Margaret, only daughter of James and Anne Calderwood Durham, of Largo, in the County of Fife, North Britain, wife of James Strange, Esq., in the Honorable East India Company's Civil Service; she died the 15th day of March 1791, aged 32, leaving issue one daughter. Impressed by the most lively sense of those distinguished and most amiable talents which endeared the wife, companion, and friend, he, with the trembling hand of true affection, inscribes this marble to her memory. Here lies deposited the body of Mrs. Strange, who died the 15th March 1791.
Monument in the Fort Church.
1798	February 13th ...	Swartz. To the memory of the Rev. Christian Frederic Swartz, born at Sonnenburg of Neumark, in the Kingdom of Prussia, the 26th October 1726, and died at Tanjore the 13th of February 1798, in the 72nd year of his age, devoted from his early manhood to the office of missionary in the East. The similarity of his situation to that of the first preachers of the Gospel produced in him a peculiar resemblance to simple sanctity of the Apostolic character. His natural vivacity won the affection, as his unspotted probity and purity of life alike commanded the reverence of the Christian, Muhammadan and Hindu. For Sovereign, princes, Hindu and Muhammadan, selected this humble pastor as the medium of political negotiation with British Government, and the very marble that here records his virtues was raised by the liberal affection and esteem of the Rajah of Tanjore, Maharaja Serfojee.
